About the Paul Nigra Center for Creative Arts:

The Paul Nigra Center for Creative Arts is a beautiful, year-round arts center open to the community. It houses premium art venues, hosts fun family events and provides educational opportunities for persons of all ages and levels of ability. The Paul Nigra Center was founded in 2015 by Lexington, an accredited, award-winning provider of disability services, and is named for its former executive director, who worked tirelessly to support people with disabilities and believed that every person could achieve success and fulfillment.

About Annie and the Hedonists:

Annie and the Hedonists is an Albany band that plays acoustic blues, vintage jazz, western swing and folk roots Americana. Their repertoire includes dozens of songs by great artists of the 1920s to 1950s and they have recorded five studio albums since 2001. The band performs at festivals, concerts and swing dances and gives workshops in singing, harmonizing, songwriting and playing instruments. Annie and the Hedonists is made up of lead vocalist Annie Rosen, guitarist and vocalist Jonny Rosen, Peter Davis on clarinet, tenor guitar, piano and vocals, and Don Young on upright bass and vocals.
