The Lexington Foundation is the fundraising and grant-making entity that provides important philanthropic support to the programs and services of Lexington.

The Paul Nigra Center for Creative Arts is a creative educational resource for people of all ages and abilities that celebrates the arts through classes, entertainment, exhibitions and special events. We also offer exceptional spaces for private parties or business events.

Legacy of Love - Schoharie helps the people we support at Lexington in Schoharie live their best lives, pursue goals and aspirations and live more independently. We provide funding to help with recreational opportunities, self-advocacy initiatives, technology for enhanced communication, adaptive equipment and much more.

The Arc Lexington's programs and events empower people with autism and developmental disabilities to live their best lives every day—and strong community partnerships are essential to their success. We invite you to consider a sponsorship of or donation to our Jewels of the Desert Gala on September 19, 2025.

This event draws 300-350 guests to the Paul Nigra Center for Creative Arts in Mayfield and raises more than $75,000 to support programs for 1,300 individuals across Fulton, Schoharie, and Albany Counties. As one of Fulton County's largest employers, with over 1,700 staff, Lexington values and uplifts the businesses that support our mission. Your generosity would be recognized and appreciated throughout the region.

If you don't see a package that interests you, let me know - we can get creative! Thank you for considering this opportunity.
